

Clearance

Looking for a deal?

Did you know that there is always a sale going on at Scentsy. We change our catalog twice a year and when we do that we get some amazing new products. Sadly, we also have to say goodbye to some. Well, the good news is that you can find a lot of discontinued Scentsy products at a great price in our CLEARANCE section. We have to make room in our warehouse for all of the new products so that means that we offer these discontinued products to you at a great value.

Are you ready to see what's on sale? Let's go!!!

Check back often.

Don't hesitate to visit the CLEARANCE page regularly. Our stock changes frequently. If you see something you like, you should probably get it now because it may not be there the next time you visit. When they are gone, they are gone.
